BRC GLOBAL STANDARD FOOD CERTIFICATION

A BRC FOOD STANDARD CERTIFICATION WITH SGS OFFERS WIDE RECOGNITION OF YOUR COMPANY'S CREDIBILITY

SGS

British Retail Consortium (BRC) Global Standard for Food Safety certification proves your level of competence in HACCP, Quality Management Systems, Factory Environmental Standards, Product Control, Process Control and Personnel, while demonstrating your commitment to consumer safety and stakeholder relations.

THE BENEFITS

The BRC Standard is recognised by the Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI), a programme that aims to harmonise international food safety standards with the support of the world's top retailers and food manufacturers. Achieving this standard will enable you to meet the requirements of these major players under a single, internationally recognised food safety management system.

Certification will help satisfy customer expectations by demonstrating the plans, programmes and systems that the Standard demands.

HOW THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS WORKS

- Step A – Tailored proposal from SGS.
- Step B – Optional pre-audit to indicate the readiness of your organisation.
- Step C – Stage 2 audit, the on-site audit is carried out to determine compliance to the BRC Global Standard for food safety.
- Step D – Annual Recertification on-site audit to remain compliant.
