

FLEGT licensed timber

The information point on FLEGT-licensed timber

Welcome

This kit is for the timber industry in the European Union. It introduces the FLEGT Licence Information Point – a new online resource to support accurate and coherent communication about FLEGT licences and trade in FLEGT-licensed products.

You can find it at www.flegtlicence.org.

Why a kit for the timber industry?

The purpose of this kit is to provide you with tools you can use to ensure the FLEGT Licence Information Point reaches people who will find it useful.

The FLEGT Licence Information Point launched on 15 September 2016, the same day that the EU-Indonesia Voluntary Partnership Agreement's Joint Implementation Committee announced that, from 15 November 2016, Indonesia will begin issuing FLEGT licences to verified legal timber products it exports to the EU.

We hope you will share with your contacts information about the FLEGT Licence Information Point. This kit provides tools to help you do that. For inquiries, contact the EU FLEGT Facility at info@euflegt.efi.int.

Tools

This kit contains the following tools:

- Standard text for describing the FLEGT Licence Information Point
- Tweets and social media messages
- A sample email for you to adapt when telling your contacts about the FLEGT Licence Information Point
- A sample article for your website or newsletter
- Answers to some questions you may have

To help spread the news you will also find a set of visuals for social media at www.flegtlicence.org/launch

For questions on materials, email

alba.pueyo@efi.int

Standard description of the FLEGT Licence Information Point

The FLEGT Licence Information Point explains what FLEGT licences are and how they can benefit businesses in the EU as well as timber producers in countries outside the EU. It includes answers to dozens of frequently asked questions that cover everything from the basics to complex trade scenarios and how to report about problems.

The information point includes details about the FLEGT Competent Authorities in each EU Member State, as well as information for importers and other traders of FLEGT-licensed products in the EU. A section devoted to Indonesia, the first country to begin FLEGT licensing, describes the country's timber legality assurance system (SVLK), FLEGT licensing procedures and FLEGT-licensed products.

The website also provides definitions, terms of use, and advice for branding and communicating accurate, coherent information about FLEGT licences. See www.flegtlicence.org.

For inquiries and assistance, contact the EU FLEGT Facility at info@euflegt.efi.int.

Sample email you can adapt and send

Dear _____

On 15 September 2016, the EU-Indonesia Voluntary Partnership Agreement's Joint Implementation Committee formally announced that, from 15 November 2016, Indonesia will begin issuing FLEGT licences to verified legal timber products it exports to the EU.

FLEGT licensed products automatically meet the due diligence requirements of EU Timber Regulation.

To encourage accurate and coherent communication about FLEGT licences and trade in FLEGT-licensed products, the EU FLEGT Facility has developed an online information point: www.flegtlicence.org.

The information point explains what FLEGT licences are and how they can benefit businesses in the EU as well as timber producers in countries outside the EU. It provides answers to dozens of frequently asked questions that cover everything from the basics to complex trade scenarios and how to report any problems.

The information point includes information about FLEGT Competent Authorities in each EU Member State, as well as information for importers and other traders of FLEGT-licensed products in the EU. A section devoted to Indonesia, the first country to begin FLEGT licensing, describes the country's timber legality assurance system (SVLK), FLEGT licensing procedures and FLEGT-licensed products.

The website also provides definitions, terms of use, and advice for branding and communicating accurate, coherent information about FLEGT licences. For inquiries and assistance, contact the EU FLEGT Facility at info@euflegt.efi.int.

Best regards,

Suggested tweets

#FLEGT licences

Everything you need to know about #FLEGT licences
www.flegtlicence.org

New website has everything you need to know about #FLEGT licences www.flegtlicence.org

#FLEGT licences guarantee timber products are legal. Learn more at www.flegtlicence.org

Indonesia will be first country to issue #FLEGT licences to legal timber exports. Find out what this means
www.flegtlicence.org

#FLEGT licences from Indonesia meet due diligence requirements of EU Timber Regulation www.flegtlicence.org

Social media messages

The FLEGT Licence Information Point is now online.

The FLEGT Licence Information Point explains how FLEGT licences can benefit businesses in the EU as well as timber producers in countries outside the EU. It includes answers to dozens of frequently asked questions that cover everything from the basics to complex trade scenarios and how to report any problems.

The FLEGT Licence Information Point includes details about FLEGT Competent Authorities in each EU Member State, as well as information for importers and other traders of FLEGT-licensed products in the EU. A section devoted to Indonesia, the first country to begin FLEGT licensing, describes the country's timber legality assurance system (SVLK), FLEGT licensing procedures and FLEGT-licensed products.

The website also provides definitions, terms of use, and advice for branding and communicating accurate, coherent information about FLEGT licences. For inquiries and assistance, contact the EU FLEGT Facility at info@euflegt.efi.int.

Sample news story for websites or newsletters

With FLEGT licences imminent, a new resource explains all

From 15 November, Indonesia will begin shipping the world's first FLEGT-licensed timber products to the EU. This is big news for the timber trade, as FLEGT licensed products automatically meet the due diligence requirements of EU Timber Regulation.

A new online resource has been launched to help EU-based timber importers and traders understand FLEGT licensing and what it means for their businesses. The FLEGT Licence Information Point (www.flegtlicence.org) includes answers to dozens of frequently asked questions that cover everything from the basics to complex trade scenarios and how to report any problems.

It also includes details about FLEGT Competent Authorities in each EU Member State, as well as information for importers and other traders of FLEGT-licensed products in the EU. A section devoted to Indonesia, the first country to begin FLEGT licensing, describes the country's timber legality assurance system (SVLK), FLEGT licensing procedures and FLEGT-licensed products.

The website also provides definitions, terms of use, and advice for branding and communicating accurate, coherent information about FLEGT licences. See www.flegtlicence.org for more details.

Other tools for learning and communicating about FLEGT

Besides the FLEGT Licence Information Point, you can use the resources below to learn and communicate about the EU FLEGT Action Plan.

www.euflegt.efi.int/web/vpaunpacked

www.flegt.org/

Follow the conversation on FLEGT.org

FLEGT.org's social wall enables users to share their views, content and resources with other users. Conversations happen in real time, creating a relevant and timely FLEGT discussion.

Sign up on FLEGT.org and start sharing your views.

Post an update

Post

Frequently asked questions

Who is the FLEGT Licence Information Point for?

The FLEGT Licence Information Point is for timber operators in the EU, producers in timber exporting countries, Competent Authorities in EU Member States, researchers, civil society organisations and anyone working on FLEGT or related efforts to address illegal logging and associated trade.

Will the FLEGT Licence Information Point be updated?

Yes. The EU FLEGT Facility will update the FLEGT Licence Information Point in response to user requests, and developments in FLEGT processes.

How can I give feedback on the FLEGT Licence Information Point?

Please contact the EU FLEGT Facility at info@euflegt.efi.int

Will the FLEGT Licence Information Point be available in other languages?

Yes, users can click on the Google translation button to choose other languages.

FLEGT licensed timber

Disclaimer

This resource is hosted by the EU FLEGT Facility and funded by the European Union and the Governments of Finland, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom. The contents of this resource are the sole responsibility of its authors and can under no circumstances be regarded as reflecting the position of funding organisations.